

Satellite radio provides constant traffic information that has become invaluable to me. The service is far more comprehensive and timely than local radio. The NAB has no right to try to dictate what I listen to, especially for what I pay to listen to. It is an affront to capitalism. I implore you to reject NAB petition 04-160